16. Audit.-(1) The accounts of the Institution shall be audited by the Auditor General in such manner as he deems fit.

(2) For the purpose of an audit under sub-section (1), the Auditor General or any person authorized by him in this behalf shall have access to all records, books, documents, cash, securities, stores and other property of the Institution and may examine any member, the Director General or any other officer or employee of the Institution.

(3) The Auditor General shall submit his audit report to the Government and shall forward a copy thereof to the institution.

17. Reports, etc.-(1) The institution shall furnish to the Government such reports and statements as the Government may, from time to time, require.

(2) The Institution shall, as soon as possible after the end of every financial year, furnish to the Government a statement of audited accounts together with an annual report on the condition of its affair of that year.

18. Authentication of orders and other instruments of the Institution.-All orders and decisions of, and all instruments issued by, the Institution shall be authenticated by the signature of such officer as may be authorized by the Council, in this behalf.

19. Prohibition of improper use of Standard Mark.-(1) Except under a license granted under section 20, no person shall use in relation to any article or process or in the title of any patent, or in any trade mark or design, the Standard Mark or any colourable imitation thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding that a license has been granted under section 20, no person shall use, in relation to any article or process, the Standard Mark or any colourable imitation thereof unless such article or process conforms to the Bangladesh Standard.

20. Grant of license.-(1) Any person who intends to use, in relation to any article or process or in the title of any patent, or in any trade mark or design, the Standard Mark shall apply to the Institution, in such form as may be prescribed, for grant of a license for such use.

(2) The Institution may grant a license if, after such enquiry as it deems necessary, it is satisfied that-

(a) the article may grant a license of which the Standard Mark is to be used conforms to the related Bangladesh Standard; and

(b) There is arrangement for routine inspection and testing to ensure that the article or process concerned conforms to the related Bangladesh Standard.

(3) A license shall be granted in such form and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed; and may be subject to such conditions as may be specified therein by the Institution.

(4) A license granted under this section shall remain valid for a period of three years: Provided that the Institution may revoke the license at any time, if it is satisfied that the licensee has violated any condition specified in the license:

Provided further that no license shall be revoked unless the licensee is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

21. Prohibition of use of certain names, etc.-Except in such cases and under such conditions as may be prescribed, no person shall, without the previous permission of the Institution, use-

- (a) any name which so nearly resembles the name of the Institution as to deceive or likely to deceive the public or which contains expressions "Bangladesh Standard" or "Bangladesh Standard Specification" or any abbreviation of such expressions; or
- (b) any mark or trade mark in relation to any article or process containing the expressions "Bangladesh Standard" or "Bangladesh Standard Specification" or any abbreviation of such expressions.

22. Prohibition of registration in certain cases.-(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no registering authority shall-

- (a) register any company, firm or other body of persons which bears any name, or
- (b) register a trade mark or design which bears any name or mark, if the use of such name or mark is in contravention of section 19 or section 21.

(2) If any question arises before a registering authority whether the use of any name or mark is in contravention of section 19 or section 21, the registering authority may refer the question to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

23. Power to prohibit or restrict export of certain articles.-(1) The Government may, in consultation with the Institution, by notification in the official Gazette and subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be made by or under the notification, prohibit, restrict or otherwise control the taking out Bangladesh of articles of any specified description which do not bear the Standard Mark or regulate generally all practices (including trade practices) and procedures connected with the export of such articles.

(2) No articles of the specified description shall be taken out of Bangladesh except in accordance with the conditions of a license to be issued by an officer authorized in this behalf by the Government.

(3) All articles to which any notification under sub-section (1) applies shall be deemed to be goods the taking of which out of Bangladesh has been prohibited or restricted under section 16 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969) and all provisions of the said Act shall have effect accordingly.

24. Power to prohibit the sale , distribution, etc. of certain articles.- (1) The Government may, in consultation with the Institution, by notification in the official Gazette, prohibit with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, the sale, distribution and commercial advertisement of any article specified therein which does not conform to the Bangladesh Standard established by the Institution in relation to that article:

Provided that the date specified in the notification shall be a date not earlier than two months from the date of publication of the notification.

(2) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, require any article which conforms to a particular Bangladesh Standard to be marked with the Standard Mark.

25. Inspections.- (1) The Institution may appoint as many Inspections as may be necessary for the purpose of inspecting whether any article or process in relation to which the Standard Mark has been used conforms to the Bangladesh Standard or whether the Standard Mark has been improperly used in relation to any article or process, with or without license and for the purpose of discharging such other duties as may be assigned to them.

(2) Subject to any regulations made under this Ordinance, an Inspector shall have power-

(a) to inspect any operation carried on in connection with any article or process in relation to which the Standard Mark has been used;

(b) to take samples of any article, or of any material or substance used in any article or process, in relation to which the Standard Mark has been used; and

“(bb) to search, seize and investigate in respect of an offence under this Ordinance as a police officer of the rank of Sub-Inspector.”

(c) to exercise such other powers as may be prescribed.

(3) Every Inspector shall be furnished by the Institution with a certificate of appointment as an Inspector, and the certificate shall, on demand, be produced by the Inspector.

26. Power to obtain information, etc.- Every license shall supply the Institution with such information, and with such samples of any material or substance used in relation to any article or process, as the Institution may require.

27. Delegation of powers.- The Institution may, by general or special order in writing, direct that such of its powers shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by the Chairman or by the Director-General or by any member of the Council or by any officer of the Institution.

28. Appeals.- (1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed under clause (1) of section 5 may prefer an appeal to the Government within three months from the date of receipt of the decision or within such further time as may be allowed by the Government on payment of such fee as the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, determine.

(2) The Government may call for relevant papers from the Institution and may, after such inquiry in the matter as it considers necessary, pass such order as it thinks fit and any such order passed by the Government shall be final.

29. Certain matters to be kept confidential.- Any information obtained by an Inspector or by a member of the Council or any officer or other employee of the Institution from any statement made or information supplied or in any evidence given or from inspection made under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be treated as confidential: Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the disclosure of any information for the purpose of prosecution under this Ordinance.

30. Penalty for improper use of Standard Mark, etc.- (1) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 19 or section 21 or section 22 shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand taka but shall not be less than seven thousand taka, or with both.

(2) A court convicting a person under sub-section (1) may direct that any property in respect of which the contravention has taken place shall be forfeited to the Government.

31. Penalty for contravention of section 23.- If any person contravenes the provisions of any notification under section 23 or of any license issued there under, he shall, without prejudice to any confiscation or penalty to which he may be liable under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), as applied by section 23(3), be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to four years, or with fine which may extend to one lac taka but shall not be less than seven thousand taka or with both.
